

A RUN FOR MONEY: 15 year- old Aditya Birla school student uses social media to pull in money for rural areas.

Meerathon: Teenager raises ₹ 10 lakh for charity

15- year old Meera Mehta from Aditya Birla World Academy has collected INR 10 lakhs for the Mumbai Marathon through different social media platforms.

She is raising the money for an non-government organisation (NGO) which does social work for the patients and rural children.

Meera further added that attending the California Summer School Program 2012

(organised by her school) helped her in this initiative as she made friends from all over the world and was able to connect with them for this enterprise.
